Partnering with us and making referrals to our energy advice services

One-to-one support with a local Citizens Advice adviser

We want to help

We want to help people who are being significantly disadvantaged by the cost of their energy. You can refer anyone who you think could do with our energy advice. We are keen to help vulnerable consumers who may fit some of the following criteria:

- low income
- pensionable age
- disability
- long term health condition
- family with child dependants
- unemployed

How we can help

Our local energy advice services help people get the best deal on their energy and are available in a range of settings. Sessions can cover switching supplier, tariff or payment method, getting financial support and how to be more energy efficient in the home.
